CORPORATE OVERVIEW

Cammack Children's Center is a nonprofit organization. We provide a caring living situation for both male and female youth between the ages of 12 to 18 who are in the Department of Health and Human Resources custody.

Cammack is a Level II therapeutic group home with an intensive professional multi-disciplinary focus for children who are in need of a residential setting. This setting is primarily for those children who require intensive services over an extended period of time.

Licensed by the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources office of Behavioral Health and Social Services, Cammack is also enrolled as an approved West Virginia Medicaid services provider.

Admissions Policy:

In order to be placed at Cammack a youth must be in the custody of the West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources.

The DHHR Social Worker should complete the APR and email or fax all needed documentation to Cammack including: Psychological report, school records, social and medical history.

Mission Statement:

The mission of Cammack Children Center is to provide effective intervention for multi-problem youth by providing and supporting a range of comprehensive and cost-efficient services that include a safe, therapeutic environment, and an opportunity to grow and succeed.

PURPOSE STATEMENT:

To provide individualized treatment programs that provide stability and security so that a youth may return to a family living arrangement as quickly as possible.
